Ms Ramsey has asked:

To ask the Minister for Employment and Learning how many people in each constituency the Employment Service has helped to find work in each of the last five years, broken down by (i) age; and (ii) gender; and how many of these people are still in employment.

ANSWER

The attached table shows the numbers of unemployed clients that have been assisted into employment between 2006/2007 and 2010/2011, broken down by age and gender.

The information in the table has been extracted from National Online Manpower Information Service (NOMIS), the website of the Office for National Statistics that provides official labour market statistics.

I am not able to provide all the information by Parliamentary Constituency area as the Employment Service data is reported by Jobcentre/Jobs and Benefits Office catchment area which do not readily map onto Parliamentary Constituency areas. I am also not in a position to advise if these clients are still in employment as there is no data gathered in relation to episodes of continued employment.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Stephen Farry". The signature is written in a cursive style with a long horizontal stroke at the end.
