Mr Daithí McKay
Chairperson
Committee for Finance and Personnel
Room 435
Parliament Buildings

Dear Mr McKay,

Review of the sale of the National Asset Management Agency (NAMA) property loan portfolio in Northern Ireland

I thank you for your letter dated 29th September, 2015.

However, given that the Committee have already decided not to address my respectful requests made on behalf of my clients at the time and have proceeded with hearing Mr Bryson's "evidence", the identity of my clients is now clearly academic and unnecessary.

Unfortunately, the serious concerns expressed in my letter appear to have been justified, with unsubstantiated allegations made before the Committee under the protection of privilege being afforded extensive coverage in the mainstream media.

Yours sincerely,

---
