

I am opposed to banning peaceful vigils outside Abortion centres.

These vigils are there to support women who may be considering abortion, to inform them that there is support for them and their baby

Surely there is something wrong with our society when the only option offered is to kill an unborn child.

Peaceful protest should always be allowed in any democracy.