

I am writing this email to say I am against the taking away of our fundamental right and freedom to stand and pray silently for the unborn outside clinics ...give out literature etc .

Please do not take away the right to be given literature and offered help in making a choice with given the appropriate information to decide whether or not to terminate the life of the unborn.