

I am opposed to the abortion zones discriminating the pro life the vigils outside abortion centres are peaceful there is no evidence of any one breaking the law. These people are there in the best interests of the girls attending these clinics and they act prayerfully and peacefully. It is a disgrace to criminalise these people.