

Response to protection of human rights of detained patient,

-I think the bill sufficiently protects the rights of the individual in hospital
-as a community mental health voluntary agency accepting detained patients, it would be helpful to have clear guidelines in our acceptance of these patients into a non-hospital setting

Otherwise I think the Bill is a much needed improvement on current arrangements.