Clause 1: Provision of free period products: Department scheme

6 Do you agree with the proposed duty described in Clause 1?

Do you agree/disagree with proposed duty in Clause 1:

Strongly Agree

7 Do you think the duty takes account of all necessary factors e.g. dignity, accessibility, choice, differently able people, travel arrangements, consultation and advertisement of arrangements for provision of period products?

Do you agree/disagree with proposed duty in Clause 1:

Neither Agree or Disagree

8 Would you add, detract from or otherwise amend any element of Clause 1?

Not Answered

If yes, what amendment would you make? :

If I'm understanding correctly, the above provides the Dept a year to hash out the details. I fail to see why a year is required - that's a long time to continue waiting for those menstruating.

It mentions users may need to pay for packaging and delivery - what exactly are these costs?

More detail is needed to define "sufficient" products. They should be those which are safe and free of harmful chemicals, they should be available in a variety of styles to suit all shapes, sizes, and flow heaviness.

Clause 2: Provision of free period products: public service bodies

9 Do you agree with the proposed duty described in Clause 2?

Do you agree/disagree with proposed duty in Clause 2:

Agree

10 Do you agree that the clause takes into account all necessary aspects of preparation to roll out the scheme, such as identification of relevant public service bodies; provision of free period products at each of their sites; provision only for use while on those premises; the ability for Departments to make regulations about these arrangements on a phased basis; and the ability for the Assembly to use affirmative procedure to give a relatively high level of scrutiny to these regulations?

Do you agree/disagree that the clause takes into account all necessary aspects of preparation:
