

I wish to support Mr Paul Givan's Bill for a number of particular reasons.

1 The current abortion law is discriminatory. It means an unborn baby deemed to have a disability does not have the same legal protection as other babies.

2 Allowing disability abortion sends the message to people living with disabilities that their lives are less valuable than those without.

3 Allowing abortion in general, except under very extenuating circumstances is morally wrong.