

To: Northern Ireland Government Health Committee

Severe Fetal Impairment Abortion (Amendment) Bill

I am supporting this bill in Northern Ireland because I believe the rights in the womb of a child with a non-fatal disability should be the same as any child without a disability, that is, they cannot be aborted after 24 weeks gestation.

This is an important matter of equality. I write from England aware that a precedent set by one national parliament in the UK makes way for all the other national parliaments to follow suit.

2nd May 2021