

I am writing to support the above Amendment.

It is essential to safeguard the life of babies in the womb who have a disability as surely in a civilised and inclusive society they should have the same rights as those outside the womb.

A sad fact of current legislation is that allowing disability abortion suggests to people living with disabilities that they are less important than those not disabled.