

I am not in agreement with making a law to abort babies with disabilities of various kinds - Downs Syndrome, children with cleft palate, to name just a couple. There are others. These people are just as valuable as us who have no disabilities. This is saying that their lives don't matter. They are very precious people. I myself had a cousin with Downs Syndrome, And was a great man, and a very loving man. Please think seriously about what you are doing!!