

Dear Sirs,

It is with utter disbelief that we the, British people, a supposedly democratic country should be endeavoring to pass a law which denies the unborn child, no matter what the circumstances, a chance of life.

Are we reverting back to 1939-1945, copying the Nazism, ethnic cleansing policy? Only God has the right to decide who lives or dies.

