

If we are a civilised society, we must treat the vulnerable and the weakest with respect, not contempt.

Downs children and adults are incredible and should be valued not discarded through abortion.