

I can only ask that if you would have wanted your own mother to have had you aborted because of a deformity and you agreed with her decision then and only then in your heart of hearts you can vote against this amendment.