Northern Ireland Assembly

The meeting commenced at 3:33 p.m. in public session.

Agreed: The Committee agreed that the formal Clause by Clause consideration of the Protection from Stalking Bill should be reported by Hansard.

1. Apologies

As above.

The Chairperson informed the Committee that, under Standing Order 115(6), the Deputy Chairperson, Sinéad Ennis MLA, had delegated authority to Jemma Dolan MLA to vote on her behalf.

2. Protection from Stalking Bill – Formal Clause-by-Clause Consideration

The Committee considered a further response from the Department of Justice to the Committee's position on the proposed amendments to the Protection from Stalking Bill.

The Committee noted that the Department remained of the view that no further amendment to Clause 17 is necessary and it would therefore bring forward its own amendment as previously agreed.

The Committee discussed the training amendment further in light of the Department's view regarding the timeframes for reporting on the training.

Agreed: The Committee agreed to bring forward an amendment to the Department's amendment on training to include a requirement to report on the level of participation by personnel in training that reflects the Department's view that requirements of not less than 2 years and not more than 3 years provided a more practical timeframe.

Northern Ireland Assembly

The Committee noted the confirmation from the Department that new Clause 17C(1)(g) would capture those who are in breach of a Stalking Prevention Order (SPO) and its views on including more detailed data capture in relation to SPOs and interim SPOs.

Agreed: The Committee agreed to bring forward an amendment to the Department's amendment to Report on the Operation of the Act to provide further detail regarding SPOs and interim SPOs.

The Committee commenced its formal clause by clause consideration of the Protection from Stalking Bill.

New clause 16A - Guidance about stalking

The Committee considered its proposed amendment to insert a new Clause 16A to provide that the Department must issue guidance about the effect of this Act and such other matters as the Department considers appropriate as to criminal law or procedure relating to stalking in Northern Ireland:

“Guidance about stalking

16A.— (1) The Department of Justice must issue guidance about —

(a) the effect of this Act, and

(b) such other matters as the Department considers appropriate as to criminal law or procedure relating to stalking in Northern Ireland.

Northern Ireland
Assembly

(2) A person exercising public functions to whom guidance issued under this section relates must have regard to it in the exercise of those functions.

(3) The Department of Justice must —

(a) keep any guidance issued under this section under review, and

(b) revise any guidance issued under this section if the Department considers revision to be necessary in light of review.

(4) The Department of Justice must publish any guidance issued or revised under this section.

(5) Nothing in this section permits the Department of Justice to issue guidance to a court or tribunal.”

Agreed: The Committee agreed that it was content with the new Clause 16A as drafted.

Agreed: That the Committee recommends to the Assembly that the proposed new Clause 16A be added to the Bill.

Clause 17 – Guidance

The Committee considered Clause 17 and an amendment proposed by the Minister of Justice, at the request of the Committee, to provide that the guidance must be laid in the Assembly:

Northern Ireland
Assembly

New clause 17A - Guidance on data collection

The Committee considered an amendment proposed by the Minister of Justice, at the request of the Committee, to insert a new Clause 17A to provide for Guidance on Data Collection:

After Clause 17 insert -

“Operational matters

Guidance on data collection

17A.— (1) The Department —

(a) may issue guidance to the listed bodies, or any additional bodies the Department considers appropriate, about the sort of information it seeks to obtain from them for the purpose of the assessment by it of the operation of this Act, and

(b) must have regard to relevant information it obtains from the listed bodies, or from any additional bodies to whom such guidance is issued, in relation to the operation of this Act when determining the steps (if any) that could be taken by it for the purpose of ensuring the effectiveness of the operation of this Act.

(2) The listed bodies are —

(a) the Police Service of Northern Ireland, and

(b) the Public Prosecution Service for Northern Ireland.”

Agreed: The Committee agreed that it was content with the proposed new Clause 17A.

Agreed: That the Committee recommends to the Assembly that the proposed new Clause 17A be added to the Bill.

Northern Ireland
Assembly

New Clause 17B – Training

The Committee considered an amendment proposed by the Minister of Justice, at the request of the Committee, to insert a new Clause 17B to provide for mandatory training:

After clause 17 insert -

“Training

17B.– (1) It is mandatory for each listed authority, and each specified authority, to provide for those of its relevant personnel who have responsibilities for dealing with cases under this Act —

(a) such initial training, and

(b) such annual or other top-up training,

as the authority considers appropriate for the purpose of the effective discharge by those personnel of their respective responsibilities.

(2) The Chief Constable is a listed authority, and the Chief Constable’s “relevant personnel” are the personnel of the Police Service of Northern Ireland.

(3) The Director of Public Prosecutions for Northern Ireland is a listed authority, and the Director’s “relevant personnel” are the personnel of the Public Prosecution Service for Northern Ireland.

(4) The Department is a listed authority, and the Department’s “relevant personnel” are —

(a) staff within the Northern Ireland Courts and Tribunal Service, and

(b) staff within any additional agency of the Department that has functions in relation to cases under this Act and that the Department selects in connection with this subsection.

(5) A “specified authority” is a person that —

(a) has functions in relation to cases under this Act, and

(b) is specified in connection with this section in regulations made by the Department;

Northern Ireland
Assembly

and a specified authority’s “relevant personnel” are persons of a description specified in regulations made by the Department.

(6) Regulations under subsection (5) are subject to negative resolution.”

The Committee considered its proposed amendment to the Minister’s amendment to provide for a requirement to report on the training:

“As an amendment to an amendment

(5A) The Department of Justice must —

(a) publish a statement setting out information held or obtained by the Department about the level of participation by the relevant personnel or (as the case may be) staff in training provided by a body in accordance with this section, and

(b) do so —

(i) before the end of the period of 3 years beginning with the day on which Sections 1 and 2 come into operation, and

(ii) annually thereafter.”

Agreed: The Committee agreed that it was content with its amendment, as drafted, to the Minister’s amendment to provide for a requirement to report on the training.

Agreed: The Committee agreed that it was content with the proposed new Clause 17B, subject to its amendment.

Agreed: That the Committee recommends to the Assembly that the proposed new Clause 17B, as amended, be added to the Bill.

(l) information about any issuing, review or revision of guidance under section 17 or 17A,

(m) information about any steps taken by the Department for raising public awareness of the behaviours addressed by this Act (including, in particular, awareness amongst persons targeted, or harmed or otherwise victimised, by the behaviours),

Northern Ireland
Assembly

(n) information about any activities undertaken by the Department in supporting the operation of this Act, and

(o) any further information the Department considers appropriate.

(2) In subsection (1)(a) “stalking incident” means an incident (including a course of conduct) which, as reported to the police, indicates either or both of the following —

(a) that an offence may have been committed under section 1 or 2;

(b) that the Chief Constable may have grounds for applying for a stalking protection order against a person.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1) —

(a) the first reporting period —

(i) begins at the end of the day on which this Act receives Royal Assent, and

(ii) is of such length, not less than 2 years and not more than 3 years, as the Department determines, and

(b) each subsequent reporting period is the 3 years beginning with the end of the previous reporting period.

(4) The Department must arrange for each report under this section to be published in such manner as the Department considers appropriate.

(5) The Department must lay before the Assembly each report under this section.

(6) The duty under subsection (1) does not apply to reporting periods ending after such time as the Department may by regulations specify, but a time may not be specified if it is earlier than the end of 10 years beginning with the end of the day on which this Act receives Royal Assent.

(7) Regulations under subsection (6) are subject to negative resolution.”

Northern Ireland
Assembly
