

Individual 2

I think this bill is a good idea and very important as alot of abuse start's with psychological abuse and can be very distructive for people's mental health and can affect them long after there wounds have healed so I'm very much in support of this bill