

Individual 21

I think this bill is a long time coming and as a past victim of emotional abuse I was lucky to have a judge who was on my side! It shouldn't have been that way I should have been protected from the start not just hope I had someone who would believe me.

So yes I'm really glad to hear of the changes and I hope in years to come many a person will benefit from it.

