This bill must have a reasonable time scale of at least 3 to 5 years history of abuse allowing victims who have recently escaped serious abusive relationships to get justice for the abuse they endured. If it is passed without the ability for thousands of victims to prosecute offenders for destroying lives and the lives of children in the past it will only allow them to continue to think they are above the law, fail thousands of victims, and let it continue. Therefore a history of non physical abuse must be taken into account and added to the sentence. Do not fail victims by allowing these creatures to get away scott free for their past crimes.
