

Individual 4

I believe this bill should be passed. Emotional and psychological abuse should be addressed as well as physical abuse. The clause that if a child is present when the abuse happens, that should be taken into account is definitely needed.

Regards

