To: Christine Darrah
Clerk to the Committee for Justice

Subject: The Domestic Abuse and Family Proceedings Bill.

Dear Christine,

At its meeting on the 20th May 2020, the Committee for the Economy considered your correspondence of 13th May 2020, calling for comments in relation to The Domestic Abuse and Family Proceedings Bill.

While the Committee has no specific comments to make regarding the Bill, Members acknowledge that domestic abuse has profound impact on individuals, families and our wider society and wish to offer their support for the passage of this Bill.

Regards,

Peter Hall
Clerk to the Committee for the Economy
