

To whom it may concern,

Thank you for including Men's Aid in this Call for Evidence. As our services are focused in the Republic of Ireland and our jurisdiction is different I would not feel we could make a submission.

All the best,

Kind regards,

CEO
#SupportingOurMen

St. Anne's Resource Centre,
Railway Street, Navan, Co.Meath
Phone: 086 021 3010
Helpline: 01 5543 811
www.mensaid.ie
Charity No. CHY13025

*1 in 7 men in Ireland experience domestic abuse.

*Only 5% of men report abuse.

Men's Aid Ireland is a national charity that supports Men and their families experiencing Domestic Violence. Our mission is to de-stigmatise Domestic Violence and raise awareness of the trauma affecting Men and their families. We aim to do this through advocacy, education, practical and emotional support.

Please note: Men's Aid is GDPR compliant and we process personal data in accordance with our privacy policy guidelines. Men's Aid privacy policy guidelines are available on our website www.mensaid.ie

In compliance with the General Data Protection Regulation Men's Aid will not hold your personal data other than to provide you with our services or other services agreed by you. You can find out more on the Men's Aid website www.mensaid.ie or we can forward you a copy of our Data Protection Policy if you wish. Information in this email (including attachments) is confidential. It is intended for the receipt and consideration only by the intended recipient. Disclaimer: Any information given by Men's Aid is only a general guide, and does not purport to be legal advice or an authoritative interpretation of the law. We strongly recommend if you are unclear in regard to information provided in this email, that telephone contact is made with Men's Aid on 01 5543811. Men's Aid does not recommend any course of action based on the information provided.