Northern Ireland Assembly

Mr Brandon Lewis CBE, Secretary of State

The Committee noted correspondence dated 22 December 2021 from Mr Brandon Lewis CBE, Secretary of State (SoS) regarding PAC's Report on Capacity and Capability in the NICS. Recommendation 11 states 'The Committee recommends the Commissioners for NI explore with the NICS how they can best support the delivery of change and transformation in recruitment and selection processes and other related areas'.

The Committee noted Mr Lewis, SoS has welcomed the report but considers that it is for the Commissioners and NICs to decide if a MoU is necessary. He has also asked his officials to engage with the Civil Service Commissioners and Ms Jayne Brady, HOCS on this matter and to consider how best any future changes would protect the Commissioners' independence.

Agreed: The Committee noted Mr Lewis's comments and agreed to recommend, in the Legacy Report, that the new PAC Committee take this matter forward.

Mr Dooley Harte, NIPSA Assistant Secretary

The Committee noted correspondence dated 10 January 2022 to Mr Kieran Donnelly CB C&AG from Mr Dooley Harte, Assistant Secretary NIPSA regarding a complaint raised by a member of the public who is a retired employee from the Department for Communities. The person feels the complaint is under the remit of the C&AG to investigate.

Agreed: The Committee agreed to discuss this in closed session under AOB.

Sport NI Sustainability Fund

The Committee noted correspondence dated 11 January 2022 from Ms Tracy Meharg, AO, DfC, regarding delegation limits of Sport NI Board in the award of grant funding. Ms Meharg confirms that the authority for the Board to approve the award of funding of £500,000 or more, is an internal delegation within Sport NI and is set out in the organisation's Scheme of Delegation. Ms Meharg is content with these arrangements and states that the Management Statement and Financial Memorandum is in place and in accordance with Managing Public Money NI.

Northern Ireland
Assembly

Agreed: The Committee noted the response.

The meeting remained in Open Session at 2.12

6. Memorandum of Reply – 'Speeding up the Justice System'

The following NIAO Officials joined the meeting:

Mr Kieran Donnelly CB C&AG,
