

Assembly Commission Equality Consultation Report

November 2022

Good Relations Action Plan 2022-25

Do you have any comments in relation to Northern Ireland Assembly Good Relations Action Plan 2022-25?

Summarised Consultee Comments	Assembly Commission Response
There are no actions to promote Good Relations by the Assembly Commission.	The Good Relations Action Plan 2022-25 is a series of activities that are specifically designed to promote Good Relations between staff, building users and the public. This will be achieved through staff training, public engagement activities, education programmes aimed at schools and colleges.
I believe the NI Assembly works hard to promote a vision of promoting good relations between the different religious belief, political opinion or racial groups.	Your comments are welcome and noted.
The action plan is clear and lays out the requirements to help to address the identified inequalities after the previous audit.	Your comments are welcome and noted.
This plan is another comprehensive piece of work that clearly outlines what the actions are, the desired outcomes, performance indicators and responsible lead.	Your comments are welcome and noted.
We agree with the practice of conducting an Accessibility Visitor Survey a number of times throughout the year and would recommend the continued liaison with disability groups in this process.	We will continue to engage with disability groups.