See the Assembly in Action

On business days, the public can watch the Assembly in plenary session or in open committee meetings.

Plenary sessions are usually held on Mondays, from 12.00 Noon, and on Tuesdays, from 10.30 am. Seats in the Public Gallery are allocated on a first come, first served basis on the day of the sitting and tickets are available from 30 minutes prior to the start of the session. Visitors wishing to visit the Public Gallery should report to the front reception area of Parliament Buildings.

Committees meet from Tuesdays to Fridays. Those wishing to view a committee session should report to the front reception area.

Information about Plenary and Committee business is available on the 'What's Happening' section of the website, at www.niassembly.gov.uk

The Education Service

The Northern Ireland Assembly Education Service provides an educational visits programme in Parliament Buildings and educational resources to support teaching and learning about the Northern Ireland Assembly. While primarily aimed at schools and other educational establishments, the Education Programme is available to any group wanting to learn about the work of the Northern Ireland Assembly.

School programmes are tailored to meet the requirements of the Northern Ireland Curriculum set out by the Council for Curriculum, Examinations and Assessment (CCEA). Citizenship, Government and Politics, and History are some of the subjects that can be brought alive by an educational visit to the Northern Ireland Assembly.

What does an educational visit involve?

Educational visits to Parliament Buildings may involve one or more of the following:

- a presentation on the Assembly by an Education Officer

- a tour (On a Monday or Tuesday, a visit to the public gallery can be arranged to watch a plenary session. On other days, visitors can sit inside the Chamber and learn all about plenary sessions.)

- an activity session, eg, a mock election
- a Question & Answer session with MLAs
- an address by Assembly staff, eg, a Committee Clerk

The programme can be tailored to meet the needs of a group and all participants receive an educational pack.

When are educational visits available?

Educational Visits to Parliament Buildings are usually available Monday to Friday from 9.00 am to 4.00 pm. In exceptional circumstances, it may be possible to arrange evening and Saturday visits.
