Re: Lord Morrow's Human Trafficking and Exploitation Bill

I am writing to welcome and support the above Bill, believing that it will make a real difference to vulnerable individuals living in Northern Ireland.

Not only will it help the Assembly to meet international obligations with regards to trafficking and exploitation, in clause 6 of the Bill the whole issue of paying for sex is addressed. As this is the main driver for the demand for trafficking it sends a clear signal that the Assembly is serious about human dignity and justice for those individuals trapped in prostitution.

Yours sincerely

Bill Cameron
