1. Remit of the Examiner of Statutory Rules

1.1 Assembly Standing Order 43 provides that every statutory rule or draft statutory rule which is laid before the Assembly and is subject to Assembly proceedings shall stand referred to the appropriate Committee of the Assembly for scrutiny. The appropriate Committee may also scrutinise any statutory rule which deals with a transferred matter, within the meaning of the Northern Ireland Act 1998, which is not subject to Assembly proceedings. The Standing Orders of the Assembly are published on the Northern Ireland Assembly website.

1.2 To assist Committees of the Assembly in the scrutiny of such statutory rules under Standing Order 43, the Examiner of Statutory Rules (the Examiner) shall carry out those functions delegated to the Examiner in relation to technical scrutiny.

1.3 The terms of reference of the Examiner, under delegation from the appropriate Committee, are as set out in Standing Order 43(6) as follows:

“In scrutinising an instrument the appropriate committee shall among other things consider the instrument with a view to determining and reporting on whether it requires to be drawn to the special attention of the Assembly on any of the following grounds, namely, that –

- (a) it imposes a charge on the public revenues or prescribes the of any such charge;*
- (b) it contains provisions requiring any payment to be made to any Northern Ireland department or public body in respect of any approval, authorisation, licence or consent or of any service provided or to be provided by that department or body or prescribes the amount of any such payment;*
- (c) the parent legislation excludes it from challenge in the courts;*
- (d) it purports to have retrospective effect where the parent legislation confers no express authority so to provide;*
- (e) there appears to have been unjustifiable delay in the publication of it or in the laying of it before the Assembly;*
- (f) there appears to be a doubt whether it is intra vires or it appears to make some unusual or unexpected use of the powers conferred by the parent legislation;*
- (g) it calls for elucidation;*
- (h) it appears to have defects in its drafting;*

or on any other ground which does not impinge on its merits or the policy behind it.”

- 1.4 Standing Order 43(7) provides that the Examiner shall, where practicable, report on a statutory rule or draft statutory rule before any resolution or motion relating to that statutory rule or draft statutory rule is moved in the Assembly.

2. Assembly procedures in relation to statutory rules

Statutory rules which are laid before the Assembly may be subject to one of the following Assembly procedures. The procedure to which any statutory rule is subject, will be set out in the parent legislation.

Rules Subject to Negative Resolution

A statutory rule that is subject to the negative resolution procedure is made by the rule making body, often a Department, and laid before the Assembly. It is law when its 'comes into force' date is reached.

It can be annulled by resolution of the Assembly within the 'statutory period'.¹ It is then void from the date of that annulment.

The statutory period is set out in the Interpretation Act (Northern Ireland) 1954. It is 30 calendar days or ten days on which the Assembly has sat after the date on which the statutory rule was laid before the Assembly, whichever is the longer.²

Rules Subject to Confirmatory Resolution

A statutory rule which is subject to confirmatory procedure is made by the rule making body, often a Department, and laid before the Assembly.

It ceases to have effect within a specified period provided for in the parent legislation unless approved by a resolution of the Assembly within that time.

Rules Subject to Affirmative Resolution

A statutory rule which is subject to the affirmative resolution procedure is made by the rule making body, often a Department, and laid before the Assembly.

It shall not come into operation unless and until affirmed by a resolution the Assembly.

3. Statutory rules to which attention is drawn in this report

3.1 Making statutory rules in the absence of Ministers:

Under Standing Order 43(6)(f) a Committee of the Assembly, or the Examiner, shall consider a statutory rule with a view to determining whether it needs to be drawn to the attention of the Assembly on the grounds that there appears to be a doubt as to whether it is intra vires, that is, whether the lawmaker has sufficient legal authority to make the legislation.

The Assembly will note the making of statutory rules by rule making bodies in the absence of normal Assembly business and without the opportunity for immediate Assembly scrutiny.

The attention of the Assembly is further drawn to the making of statutory rules by Departments in the absence of the direction and control of Ministers.

Between 2 March 2017 and 11 January 2020 Departments operated otherwise than under the direction and control of Ministers and during that time, Departments took decisions to make subordinate legislation.³

In *re Buick, Re Judicial Review [2018]*⁴ the Northern Ireland Court of Appeal held that the relevant department did not have the power to make the impugned decision in the absence of a Minister.

Following the decision of the Court of Appeal in Buick, the Westminster Parliament enacted the Northern Ireland (Executive Formation and Exercise of Functions) Act 2018 (the 2018 Act)⁵. The provisions of the 2018 Act are detailed below.

Section 3(4) of the 2018 Act provided that the absence of Northern Ireland Ministers was not to be treated as having prevented any senior officer from exercising functions of the relevant department during the period from 2 March 2017 to the passing of the 2018 Act.

Section 3(1) of the 2018 Act provided that the absence of Northern Ireland Ministers would not prevent a senior officer of a Northern Ireland department from exercising a function of the department during the period for forming an Executive (from the passing of the 2018 Act) - if the officer was satisfied that it was in the public interest to exercise the function during that period.

Section 3(2) of the 2018 Act required the Secretary of State to publish guidance about the exercise. Section 3(3) required senior officers of the Northern Ireland Departments to have regard to that guidance.

³ It is noted that no statutory rules were made by the Department for Education during this period.

⁵ <http://www.legislation.gov.uk/ukpga/2018/28/enacted>

On 5 November 2018 the Secretary of State for Northern Ireland published Guidance on the exercise of the functions of Northern Ireland departments during the period for Executive Formation.⁶

Section 3(5) of the 2018 Act provided that the fact that a matter connected with the exercise of a function by a Northern Ireland Department had not been discussed and agreed by the Executive Committee of the Northern Ireland Assembly was not to be treated as having prevented the exercise of that function by Departments as set out in sections 3(1) or 3(4).

Section 3(6) of the 2018 Act provided that these provisions would not apply in relation to the exercise of a function before the 2018 Act was passed where this would affect the outcome of relevant proceedings.

Section 3(7) of the 2018 Act provided that sections 3(1) to 3(6) had effect despite any enactment or rule of law that would prevent a senior officer from exercising departmental functions in the absence of Northern Ireland Ministers.

The ‘Guidance on decision-making for Northern Ireland Departments during the period for Northern Ireland Executive formation’ (the Guidance) to which senior officers of the Departments were required to have due regard sets out ‘Guiding principles for decision making’. These include the following:

- “9. Some decisions should not be taken in the absence of Ministers. NI Departments should therefore first consider the public interest of having locally elected, accountable Ministers taking decisions. Any major policy decisions, such as the initiation of a new policy, programme or scheme, including new major public expenditure commitments, or a major change of an existing policy, programme or scheme, should normally be left for Ministers to decide or agree.
10. NI departments should then consider whether there is a public interest in taking a decision rather than deferring a decision during the period for Executive formation.
11. When considering whether there is a public interest in taking a decision in the absence of Ministers, principles to be taken into account by senior officers in NI Departments include:
 - (a) the principle that it is a priority to maintain the delivery of public services as sustainably and efficiently as possible, working towards the previous Executive’s stated objective of improving wellbeing for all - by tackling disadvantage and driving economic growth.
 - (b) the principle that the priorities and commitments of the former Executive and Minister(s) should be followed unless there is an exceptional circumstance such as a significant emerging challenge, new strong objective evidence, or significant changing circumstances which lead senior officials to conclude that it is no longer in the public interest to do so.

⁶ Guidance on decision-making for Northern Ireland Departments during the period for Northern Ireland Executive formation. Nov 2018. Cm 9725

- (c) the principle that opportunities should be taken to work towards the 12 outcomes published in the 2018-19 Outcomes Delivery Plan, which is based on the draft Programme for Government developed in conjunction with the political parties of the previous Executive:

Outcome 1: We prosper through a strong, competitive, regionally balanced economy

Outcome 2: We live and work sustainably – protecting the environment

Outcome 3: We have a more equal society

Outcome 4: We enjoy long, healthy, active lives

Outcome 5: We are an innovative, creative, society, where people can fulfil their potential

Outcome 6: We have more people working in better jobs

Outcome 7: We have a safe community where we respect the law, and each other

Outcome 8: We care for others and we help those in need

Outcome 9: We are a shared, welcoming and confident society that respects diversity

Outcome 10: We have created a place where people want to live and work, to visit and invest

Outcome 11: We connect people and opportunities through our infrastructure

Outcome 12: We give our children and young people the best start in life.”

The Guidance issued by the Secretary of State also addressed the issue of transparency, accountability, and record keeping. The Guidance stated that Departments should consider how best to maintain records on decisions taken in the absence of Ministers.

The Guidance stated that the decisions of Departments must comply with relevant statutory guidance and requirements and all existing legislative obligations, including but not limited to, ensuring that functions are exercised in a way that is consistent with sections 75 and 76 of the Northern Ireland Act 1998, the Human Rights Act 1998 and the Public Records Act (Northern Ireland) 1923.

Departments have been invited to describe out their respective approaches to decision making in relation to the making of subordinate legislation within this context.⁷

In their respective submissions on their approaches to decision making in relation to the making of statutory rules, Departments have drawn on the provisions of the 2018 Act, on the Guidance, and on their examination of the public interest. Their submissions have been summarised in Appendix A hereto.

3.2 Statutory rule quashed by the Court:

S.R. 2017/226, The Trunk Road T3 (Western Transport Corridor) Order (Northern Ireland) 2017.

The attention of the Assembly is drawn to S.R. 2017/226 The Trunk Road T3 (Western Transport Corridor) Order (Northern Ireland) 2017 (subject to the negative resolution procedure).

This statutory rule, made by the Department of Infrastructure on 28 November 2017, was quashed by the High Court on 16 November 2018.⁸ Accordingly, the Trunk Road T3 (Western Transport Corridor) Order (Northern Ireland) 2017 may be considered never to have had legal effect.

3.3 Draft statutory rule to be replaced by the Department, not to be moved:

Draft SR, The Witness Charter (Justice Act (Northern Ireland) 2015) Order (Northern Ireland) 2017

The attention of the Assembly is drawn to the Witness Charter (Justice Act (Northern Ireland) 2015) Order (Northern Ireland) 2017 (subject to the draft affirmative procedure).

The Witness Charter (Justice Act (Northern Ireland) 2015) Order (Northern Ireland) 2017 was laid in draft on 9 January 2017. The purpose of the Order is to bring the Witness Charter into operation.

The Witness Charter is a charter for witnesses of criminal conduct under the Justice Act (Northern Ireland) 2015, and sets out the entitlements and standards that will apply to witnesses of crime, by a range of criminal justice service providers in Northern Ireland. It also sets out how witnesses will be dealt with by defence legal representatives.

The Order is subject to the draft affirmative procedure and has no legal effect until affirmed by the Assembly.

A number of references within the laid draft Order and Witness Charter are now anachronistic.

Accordingly, the Department has advised that it will replace this Order and Witness Charter.

⁸ Application by the Alternative A5 Alliance, High Court of Northern Ireland, Queens Bench, 16 November 2018

The Department will bring forward a new Order and Witness Charter, and that redrafted Order and Witness Charter will be laid before the Assembly by the Department.

3.4 Successive statutory rules subject to the confirmatory procedure:

The attention of the Assembly is drawn to those statutory rules which have been made by the Department of Communities which are subject to the confirmatory procedure, and which were made during that period when normal Assembly business was not ongoing.

A statutory rule which is subject to the confirmatory resolution procedure is made by the rule making body, usually a Department, and laid before the Assembly. It has legal effect without any action by the Assembly. However, it ceases to have effect unless approved by a resolution of the Assembly within a specified period provided for in the parent legislation.

The confirmatory resolution procedure is used for more significant exercises of delegated powers. It requires positive action by the Assembly for the statutory rule to continue in force.

The Assembly will note that in a number of instances a 'chain' of statutory rules have had the effect of ensuring that, where an individual rule ceased to have effect, its provision nevertheless prevails in the statutory rule by which it is succeeded.

This repeated use of the rule-making power to defeat the requirements of the confirmatory procedure is not anticipated by parent legislation requiring the use of the confirmatory procedure. It may be considered an unexpected use of the delegated power.

The Department has made the following submission in relation to its use of these powers in such a manner as to defeat the requirement for confirmatory resolution.

The Department states that parity of timing and substance is an integral part of the maintenance of single systems of social security, pensions and child support provided for in section 87 of the Northern Ireland Act 1998. The Department asserts that it was, therefore, necessary to make regulations, whether negative or confirmatory, during the period of the absence of Ministers and of normal Assembly business in order to maintain parity with the Department for Work and Pensions timeframe and to ensure the maintenance of a sustainable and efficient public service.

The Department advises that it acknowledges that in normal circumstances it would not have sought to re-make confirmatory rules on a rolling basis. The Department states that it acted in the public interest to try to ensure that the social security, pensions and child support systems could continue to function during this period. The Department asserts that it acted in the public interest at all times and that making the necessary legislation both negative and confirmatory was a proportionate and legally apt response to the difficult circumstance in which it found itself.

3.5 Sub-delegation, statutory rule to be amended:

S.R. 2019/193: The Mental Capacity (Research) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2019

The attention of the Assembly is drawn to S.R. 2019/193, The Mental Capacity (Research) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2019 (subject to the negative resolution procedure).

The Regulations contain an unlawful sub-delegation of the power provided for in the parent legislation.

The provisions in section 132(4) of the Mental Capacity Act (Northern Ireland) 2016 provides that an 'appropriate body' means the person, committee or other body which is specified in regulation. These Regulations provide that the person, committee or body is one that is designated as such by a HSC Trust or University.

The Department advises that the policy intent behind this was to prevent a requirement for a large number of new statutory regulations to reflect not infrequent changes in university approval bodies.

However, the Department has recognised that this is an inappropriate use of the Regulation making power in section 132 of the Act.

Accordingly, the Department has made a new statutory rule, 2020 No. 17, The Mental Capacity (Research) (Amendment) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2020, which will amend these Regulations to provide for a specific list in the Regulations which sets out specific 'appropriate bodies'.

The Department has therefore appropriately addressed the issue.

3.6 Breach of the 21 day rule

The 21 day rule is the established rule of parliamentary practice whereby a Department or other rule-making body should, in the case of a statutory rule that is subject to negative resolution, allow a minimum of 21 days between the laying of the statutory rule and its coming into operation.

The 21 day rule acts to protect those who may be affected by changes in the law from being subject to those changes before they have had a reasonable opportunity to understand the effect of the changes and what they must do to satisfy any requirements.

Accordingly, a statutory rule should be laid at least 21 calendar days before it is due to come into force (including the date of laying) and only be brought into force on the twenty-second day at the very earliest.

The 21 day rule also operates to ensure that the Assembly may carry out scrutiny of a statutory rule before it comes into force. A Department or other rule-making body should not breach the 21 day rule unless there exists a compelling need for urgency which it should set out fully at the time of laying of the statutory rule in question.

Only in the most exceptional circumstances should a statutory rule that is subject to negative resolution be laid after it has come into operation and, where it is so laid, a full explanation of the circumstances giving rise to that should be given.

I draw the attention of the Assembly to the following statutory rules on the grounds that in each case the Rule was laid in breach of the 21 day rule. These rules are each subject to the negative resolution procedure.

S.R. 2017/38: The Occupational and Personal Pension Schemes (Automatic Enrolment) (Amendment) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2017

The Regulations were made on 10 Feb 2017, laid on 14 March 2017 and came into operation on 6 March 2017.

The Department has set out reasons for the breach of the 21 day rule within the Explanatory Memorandum to the Regulations.

I am content that on this occasion the Department has provided a satisfactory explanation for the breach.

S.R. 2017/39: The Pension Protection Fund and Occupational Pension Schemes (Levy Ceiling and Compensation Cap) Order (Northern Ireland) 2017

The Order was made on 17 February 2017, laid on 14 March 2017, and came into operation on 31 March 2017.

The Department has expressed regret at the breach of the 21 day rule and has set out the background to and reasons for this breach in correspondence.

I am content that the Department has provided a satisfactory explanation for the breach in this instance.

S.R. 2017/45: The Social Security (Industrial Injuries) (Prescribed Diseases) (Amendment) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2017

The Regulations were made on 9 March 2017, laid on 14 March 2017 and came into operation on 30 March 2017.

The Department has set out reasons for the breach of the 21 day rule within the Explanatory Memorandum to the Regulations.

I am content that on this occasion the Department has provided a satisfactory explanation for the breach in this instance.

S.R. 2017/52: The Employers' Duties (Implementation) (Amendment) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2017

The Regulations were made on 14 March 2017, laid on 14 March 2017 and came into operation on 1 April 2017.

The Department has set out reasons for the breach of the 21 day rule within the Explanatory Memorandum to the Regulations.

I am content that on this occasion the Department has provided a satisfactory explanation for the breach in this instance.

SR 2017/66 - The Pensions (2015 Act) (Consequential, Supplementary and Incidental Amendments) Order (Northern Ireland) 2017

The Order was made on 20 March 2017, laid on 20 March 2017, and provisions of the Order came into operation on 6 April 2017.

The Department set out reasons for this breach of the 21 day rule in the Explanatory Memorandum prepared by the Department to accompany the Order and in correspondence.

I am content that the Department has provided a satisfactory explanation for the breach in this instance.

SR 2017/72 - Rates (Small Business Hereditament Relief) (Amendment) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2017

The Regulations were made on 3 April 2017, laid on 3 April 2017, and came into operation on 18 April 2017.

The Department set out its reasons for this breach of the 21 day rule in the Explanatory Memorandum prepared by the Department to accompany the Regulations and has advised that the breach occurred in light of circumstances outside the direct control of the Department.

I am content that the Department has provided a satisfactory explanation for the breach in this instance.

S.R. 2017/83: The Planning (Environmental Impact Assessment) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2017

The Regulations were made on 11 May 2017, laid on 12 May 2017, and came into operation on 16 May 2017.

The Department has expressed regret at the breach of the 21 day rule and has set out the background to and reasons for this breach in correspondence.

I am content that the Department has provided a satisfactory explanation for the breach in this instance.

S.R. 2017/86: The Environmental Impact Assessment (Forestry) (Amendment) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2017

The Regulations were made on 15 May 2017, laid on 16 May 2017 and came into operation on 16 May 2017.

The Department has expressed regret at the breach of the 21 day rule and has set out the background to and reasons for this breach in correspondence.

I am content that the Department has provided a satisfactory explanation for the breach in this instance.

SR 2017/87 - The Roads (Environmental Impact Assessment) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2017

The Regulations were made on 16 May 2017, laid on 16 May 2017, and came into operation on 16 May 2017.

The Department has expressed regret at the breach of the 21 day rule and has set out the background to and reasons for this breach in correspondence.

I am content that the Department has provided a satisfactory explanation for the breach in this instance.

SR 2017/88 - The Drainage (Environmental Impact Assessment) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2017

The Regulations were made on 16 May 2017, were laid on 17 May 2017 and came into operation on 16 May 2017.

The Department has expressed regret at the breach of the 21 day rule and has set out the background to, and reasons for this breach, and for laying the Regulations on the day after they had been made.

I am content that the Department has provided a satisfactory explanation for the breach and for the delay in laying the Regulations.

S.R. 2017/119: The Marketing of Fruit Plant and Propagating Material Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2017

The Regulations were made on 28 June 2017, laid on 28 June 2017 and came into operation on 29 June 2017.

The Department has expressed regret at the breach of the 21 day rule and has set out the background to and reasons for this breach in correspondence.

I am content that the Department has provided a satisfactory explanation for the breach in this instance.

SR 2017/155 - The Seed Potatoes (Amendment) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2017

The Regulations were made on 28 July 2017, laid on 31 July 2017 and came into operation on 1 August 2017.

The Department has expressed regret at the breach of the 21 day rule and has set out the background to and reasons for this breach in correspondence.

I am content that the Department has provided a satisfactory explanation for the breach in this instance.

S.R. 2017/198: The Environmental Impact Assessment (Agriculture) (Amendment No.2) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2017

The Regulations were made on 20 September 2017, laid on 22 September 2017 and came into operation on 25 September 2017.

The Department has expressed regret at the breach of the 21 day rule and has set out the background to and reasons for this breach in correspondence.

I am content that the Department has provided a satisfactory explanation for the breach in this instance.

S.R. 2017/219: The Social Security (Infected Blood and Thalidomide) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2017

The Regulations were made on 24 October 2017, laid on 26 October 2017 and came into operation on 30 October 2017.

The Department has expressed regret at the breach of the 21 day rule and has set out the background to and reasons for this breach in correspondence.

I am content that the Department has provided a satisfactory explanation for the breach in this instance.

S.R. 2017/205: The Social Security (Emergency Funds) (Amendment) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2017

The Regulations were made on 27 September 2017, laid on 5 October 2017 and came into operation on 27 September 2017.

The Department has expressed regret at the breach of the 21 day rule and has set out the background to and reasons for this breach in correspondence.

I am content that the Department has provided a satisfactory explanation for the breach in this instance.

S.R. 2017/231: The Rates (Unoccupied Hereditaments) (Amendment) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2017

The Regulations were made on 4 December 2017, laid on 5 December 2017 and came into operation on 5 December 2017.

The Department has expressed regret at the breach of the 21 day rule and has set out the background to and reasons for this breach in correspondence.

I am content that the Department has provided a satisfactory explanation for the breach in this instance.

Appendix A:

SUMMARY OF DEPARTMENTAL SUBMISSIONS IN RELATION TO THE MAKING OF STATUTORY RULES IN THE ABSENCE OF MINISTERS:

The Department for Agriculture, Environment and Rural Affairs

The Department for Agriculture, Environment and Rural Affairs has advised that its approach to legislation in the absence of Ministers was to follow past Ministerial direction as far as possible. The Department advises that its approach has been to act in the public interest when necessary, and defer decision making for the return of a Minister when possible.

The Department asserts that its decisions in relation to the making of legislation should be placed in the context of exit from the European Union. The Department advises that in some cases it was necessary to legislate under powers which would not persist post exit day, in others to make 'referential corrections', for example if there were references to European Union Regulations. In other cases, the Department acted to comply with European Union Regulations and avoid infraction proceedings. The Department comments that it has provided explanations of the drivers of the making of statutory rules as they were made. The Department advises that it responded to the requirements of the 2018 Act and the Guidance and put in place a Senior Decision Making Forum (SDMF) the purpose of which was to provide a collective decision making forum at Senior Civil Service level, prior to presentation to the Permanent Secretary. The Department advises that the role of the SDMF was to consider if it is appropriate to process a decision under the powers provided by the 2018 Act.

The Department has advised that it routinely met consultation requirements set out in relevant legislation, to engage with stakeholders, and to meet requirements on public interest and other relevant tests.

The Department for Communities

The Department for Communities had advised that section 87 of the Northern Ireland Act 1998 requires the Secretary of State (for Work and Pensions) and the Northern Ireland Minister to seek to secure, to the extent agreed, single systems of social security, child support and pensions across the UK.

The Department advises that the current policy is that the single systems are maintained unless the Northern Ireland Executive decides that it wishes to diverge. The Department asserts that any decision to diverge from the single systems could have significant financial implications as the Statement of Funding Policy, in effect, means the cost of any divergence falls to the Northern Ireland block grant. The Department states that in line with this 'settled policy', the working assumption was that, subject to the Permanent Secretary's agreement, the Department would continue to make the necessary subordinate legislation to maintain the position of parity. The Department states that the enabling provisions to make social security, child support and pensions rules vest in this Department.

The Department sets out its reliance on the 2018 Act, the associated Guidance, and its consideration of the public interest. The Department states that it applied a number of tests, including susceptibility to judicial review, and consideration of the public interest, before seeking the Permanent Secretary's agreement to take forward parity subordinate legislation. The Department asserts that this was to ensure that the public would not be disadvantaged if the legislation was not made in order to maintain parity in content and timing with similar GB legislation.

The Department for the Economy

The Department for the Economy has provided submissions detailing each of those statutory rules made and laid in the absence of Ministers.

The Department has noted the purpose of each statutory rule, the Department's reference to legal advice and to the 2018 Act, those issues of the public interest considered, and those occasions when the making of statutory rules were driven by the requirements of the European Union.

The Department of Finance

The Department of Finance has provided submissions detailing all of those statutory rules made and laid in the absence of Ministers, describes the potential consequences of a decision not to legislate in each case and asserts that those statutory rules advanced in the absence of Ministers were deemed necessary.

The Department advises that it has relied on the provisions of the 2018 Act to take decisions in the absence of Ministers and during the period of Executive formation and that it has taken into account the Guidance of the Secretary of State when deciding whether or not it is in the public interest to exercise a departmental function.

The Department of Health

The Department of Health advised that, in the absence of Ministers, between January 2017 and November 2018 statutory rules made by the Department were made having due regard to legal advice including the public interest test. Since November 2018 statutory rules were made having due regard to section 3 of the 2018 Act. The Department advises that legal advice was sought in each case. The Permanent Secretary was satisfied in each case that the public interest test was met and accordingly approved the making of the subordinate legislation.

The Department has provided details of each of those statutory rules made and laid in the absence of Ministers. The Department has set out potential consequences of a decision not to legislate, described relevant public interest considerations, and advises where it considers that the statutory rule was necessary to respond to European Union obligations.

The Department for Infrastructure

The Department for Infrastructure has stated that departmental business requires that a significant number of pieces of subordinate legislation are made covering a wide range of subjects including roads and lands issues, transport and vehicles, and water and drainage issues. In the case of transport and vehicular issues, the Department advises that the need to produce legislation can often arise in response to emerging EU obligations or the need to adjust EU derived statutory provision in order to achieve full transposition. Further, the Department advises that statutory rules made in the absence of Ministers fell into three categories.

First, those decisions made in the absence of Ministers prior to the decision of the Court of Appeal in Buick, the Department asserts that it made decisions that were within its competence under existing legislation, were non-controversial and were in the public interest. Second, following the decision in Buick, and prior to the arrangements put in place by the 2018 Act, the Department asserts that it made no decisions of the type that would previously have been presented to a Minister to decide or agree. Thirdly, from the passing of the 2018 Act, the Department asserts that where no major policy, cross-cutting or contentious issues were involved decisions were taken in line with the published Secretary of State's guidance and based on legal advice that supported the making and laying of negative resolution statutory rules.

The Department of Justice

The Department of Justice has advised that it carefully considered the issue around vires and concluded that it did have the power to make the various negative resolution instruments, in the absence of a Minister.

The Department states that the 2018 Act provides that senior officers of Northern Ireland departments shall not be prevented from exercising departmental functions where it is in the public interest to do so.

The Department states that alongside the Act, the Secretary of State has published guidance to which departments are required to have regard, setting out principles to be taken into account when applying a public interest test.

The Department advises that in accordance with the Act and having regard to both the Secretary of State's guidance and, the guidance issued from the Departmental Solicitor, it has applied a public interest test in respect of proposed changes.
