I refer to my recent answer to your Assembly Question AQW 23391/11-15, in which I provided information on the number of illegal paramilitary or terrorist roadside monuments, by constituency.

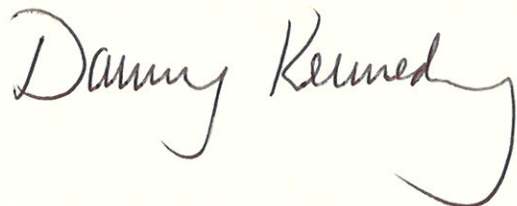

My answer provided a table showing 19 illegal paramilitary or terrorist roadside monuments, broken down by constituency. Unfortunately, this table erroneously contained a breakdown that my Department's most recent assessment indicates is incorrect.

The figures have been revised as one of the monuments, in the Fermanagh and South Tyrone constituency, has now been assessed as not being on a public road. However, an additional monument has been identified in the Newry and Armagh constituency.

A revised version of my answer to AQW 23391/11-15 is attached for your ease of reference, and I apologise for any confusion that may have arisen.

This letter will also be copied to the Speaker, other Members, the Assembly Library, and to the Office of the Official Report (Hansard).

I trust this information has been helpful.
