

Response from Daniel Greenberg re: Proposed Amendments from DRD

One could debate the points made by the Department about the Committee's amendment - but their counter-offer is an effective way of achieving the Committee's desire to have soft SUDS given statutory parity and recognition, and would represent a significant achievement by the Committee: so I suggest that you simply accept it.