- (a) he pays to the Trustees within 28 days of their acceptance of his application, or within such longer period as the Trustees may determine, the sum certified by the Trustees as being the amount which would have been deducted from his salary as a member under article D1 between the effective opt-in date and the first date thereafter when a deduction from that salary under article D1 is made; and

- (b) at the effective opt-in date, at least three months had elapsed since he was last elected to membership of the Assembly.

Under articles E and F, the rate at which pensions accrue under this Scheme is increased from 1/50th of the relevant final salary (the “lower accrual rate”) to 1/40th of the relevant terminal salary (the “higher accrual rate”) for periods of reckonable service falling after 31 March 2009. However, any participant in the Scheme at 31 March 2009 has the right to opt for continuing participation in the Scheme at the lower accrual rate, by giving written notice to the Trustees no later than 11 May 2009.
 2. A participant first elected to the Assembly after 31 March 2009, may opt for participation in the Scheme at the lower accrual rate, by giving written notice to the Trustees no later than 3 months after the date of appointment as an Assembly Member.
 3. If a participant in the Scheme, whether first elected to the Assembly before or after 31 March 2009, is accruing pension at the higher accrual rate, that participant may, at any subsequent general Assembly election, opt to participate at the lower accrual rate in respect of service after the date of that election. Such an option must be exercised by giving written notice to the Trustees within 3 months of the date of the election.
 4. For the avoidance of doubt, a participant who is accruing pension at the higher accrual rate, may at any subsequent general election on or after 1 May 2011, opt to participate at the lower accrual rate in respect of service completed after the date of that election, provided that such option is exercised by giving written notice to the Trustees within 3 months of the date of the election.
 5. If a participant is both a participating member and a participating office holder, any option for the lower accrual rate must be exercised in respect of both member and office holder reckonable service.

Part D

Contributions by participants

- D1.
1. Subject to paragraph 3 and article D2, there shall be deducted from each payment in respect of salary as a member made to a participating member by the sum specified below; and all sums so deducted shall be paid into the Fund:

- (a) 6% or 7% on and after 1 July 2012 of the salary payment, if the participant has opted for the lower accrual rate, or
 - (b) 11.5% or 12.5% on and after 1 July 2012 of the salary payment, if the higher accrual rate applies.
2. Subject to article D2, there shall be deducted from each payment in respect of office holder's salary made to a participating office holder by the sum specified below; and all sums so deducted shall be paid into the Fund:
 - (a) 6% or 7% on and after 1 July 2012 of the salary payment, if the participant has opted for the lower accrual rate, or
 - (b) 11.5% or 12.5% on and after 1 July 2012 of the salary payment, if the higher accrual rate applies.
3. Where a person's aggregate period of reckonable service as a participating member exceeds that which would give rise to the maximum pension allowed in respect of that person as a participating member under article F5, no deduction shall be made under this article from payments in respect of his salary as a member.
4. If any salary from which a deduction is required to be made under this article is not drawn, there shall be set aside, out of moneys available for the payment, a sum equal to the relevant deduction; and any sum so set aside shall be paid into the Fund.

Earnings cap

D2. Where the annual salary of a participating member as:

- (a) a member of the Assembly; or
- (b) both a member of the Assembly and an office holder exceeds the permitted maximum, the contributions deducted from that annual salary shall be limited to the applicable contribution rate percentage payable by the individual under article D1 of that permitted maximum and where sub-paragraph (b) applies his contributions under article D1 in respect of his office holder's salary shall be reduced before his contributions under that article in respect of his salary as a member.

Contributions from Consolidated Fund

D3.

1. In respect of each financial year a Consolidated Fund contribution shall be paid into the Fund out of money appropriated by Act of the Assembly for that purpose.
2. The amount of the Consolidated Fund contribution to be paid in respect of any financial year shall be calculated in accordance with the recommendations for that year contained in a report under article S2 by the Actuary appointed under article S1.

Part E

Reckonable Service

Reckonable service

E1.

1. Subject to articles N1 (refunds) and P4 (effect of transfers out) in relation to any person any period during which he was a member of the Assembly and has made contributions to the Fund is a period of reckonable service as a participating member; and in this Scheme “actual period of reckonable service as a participating member”, in relation to a person, means the period referred to in this paragraph or (if more than one) the aggregate of such periods where the member has chosen to aggregate.

2. Subject to articles N1 (refunds) and P4 (effect of transfers out), any period during which a person is a participating office holder is a period of reckonable service as a participating office holder; and in this Scheme “aggregate period of reckonable service as a participating office holder”, in respect of a person, means his period (or, if more than one, the aggregate of his periods) of reckonable service as a participating office holder.
3. In respect of a person, his aggregate period of reckonable service as a participating member is his actual period of reckonable service as a participating member together with any increases in reckonable service attributable to sums received by way of transfer value or to the purchase of added years.
 - (i) Aggregate period of reckonable service at the higher accrual rate (whether as a participating member or as a participating office holder) refers to the period of reckonable service as such a participant after 31 March 2009 in respect of which pension benefits for the member were accruing at the higher accrual rate of 1/40th of relevant final salary;
 - (ii) Aggregate period of reckonable service at the lower accrual rate refers to reckonable service prior to 1 April 2009, and to any reckonable service after that date where the participant had opted for pension benefits to accrue at the lower accrual rate of 1/50th of relevant final salary (whether as a participating member or as a participating office holder).
4. For the purposes of this Scheme, a period of reckonable service is measured in years and fractions of a year.

Part F

Pension Entitlement

Entitlement of pensioner members

- F1. Subject to the provisions of this Scheme, a person who ceases to be a participating member and who has reckonable service as a participating member under Part E shall be entitled to receive a pension under this article as from the time when the following conditions are fulfilled in respect of him:
- (a) he is not a member of the Assembly; and
 - (b) he has attained the age of 65; or
 - (c) he is within 3 calendar months of his 75th birthday.

Entitlement of pensioner office holders

- F2.
1. Subject to the provisions of this Scheme, a person who:
 - (a) ceases to be a participating office holder; and
 - (b) has reckonable service as a participating office holder under Part E, shall be entitled to receive a pension under this article as from the time when the conditions specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) of article F1 are fulfilled in respect of him.

2. A person may be entitled to a pension under both articles F1 and this article; and the amounts of the two pensions shall be cumulative.

Amount payable to pensioner members

F3.

1. Subject to articles F5 (permitted maximum pensions), G1 (commutation), H1 (early retirement) and J1 (ill health pensions), the annual amount of the pension payable to a person under article F1 shall be:
 - (a) 1/50th of the relevant final salary x his aggregate period of reckonable service at the lower accrual rate, plus
 - (b) 1/40th of the relevant final salary x his aggregate period of reckonable service at the higher accrual rate.
2. In paragraph 1 “the relevant final salary” means:
 - (a) in relation to a person whose actual period of reckonable service as a participating member was 12 months or more, the amount of a member’s ordinary salary for the last 12 months (whether continuous or not) comprised in that actual period of reckonable service; and
 - (b) in relation to a person whose actual period of reckonable service as a participating member was less than 12 months, the amount of a member’s ordinary salary for the period (whether continuous or not) which constituted that actual period of reckonable service multiplied by 365 and divided by the number of days in that period,and in either case excludes any amount in excess of the permitted maximum.
3. Subject to paragraphs 5 and 7 below and to article C7, in paragraph 1 “aggregate period of reckonable service” refers to the person’s aggregate period of reckonable service as a participating member.
4. Paragraph 5 applies to a pensioner who, for all or part of his actual period of reckonable service as a participating member would have qualified as a dual mandate member and received a member’s reduced salary for the period prior to 5 July 2010; and who for the period on and from 5 July 2010, ceases to be a participating member and is therefore dealt with as a dual mandate member. For the avoidance of doubt, paragraph 5 also applies to the benefits of any individuals who have otherwise qualified as dual mandate members during the period prior to 5 July 2010 but who had ceased to be such by 5 July 2010.
5. For the purpose of calculating under this article the annual amount of a pension payable to a pensioner to whom this paragraph applies:
 - (a) for the period prior to 5 July 2010, so much of his actual period of reckonable service as a participating member during any period when he was also in receipt of salary as a member of either House of Parliament or of the European Parliament for which he received a reduced member’s salary (as stipulated by the then provisions of the Northern Ireland Act 1998) shall be reduced by two thirds; and
 - (b) for the period on or from 5 July 2010, any part of his actual period of reckonable service for which he would have received a member’s ordinary salary but for his status as a dual mandate member, shall result in a nil salary award. Accordingly, no participating member pension benefits shall accrue in the Scheme for a dual mandate member.

6. Paragraph 7 applies to a pensioner who, for all or part of his actual period of reckonable service as a participating member received a Councillor's reduced salary for the period beginning on and after 1 July 2012.
 7. For the purpose of calculating under this article the annual amount of a pension payable to a pensioner to whom this paragraph applies:
 - (a) for the period from 1 July 2012 to 31 March 2013 (inclusive), so much of his actual period of reckonable service as a participating member during which he was also in receipt of a Councillor's basic allowance shall be reduced by:-

50% of the Councillor's basic allowance

100% of a member's ordinary salary; and
 - (b) for the period on or after 1 April 2013, so much of his actual period of reckonable service as a participating member during which he was also in receipt of a Councillor's basic allowance shall be reduced by:-

100% of the Councillor's basic allowance

100% of a member's ordinary salary.

Amount payable to pensioner office holders

F4.

1. Subject to articles F5 (permitted maximum pensions), G1 (commutation), H1 (early retirement) and J1 (ill health pensions), the annual amount of the pension payable to a person under article F2 shall be calculated in accordance with this article.
 2. For each year of which the whole or any part was comprised in the person's aggregate period of reckonable service as a participating office holder the following amounts shall be calculated:
 - (a) an amount equal to the sums deducted under article D1.2 in respect of that year from the person's office holder's salary calculated separately for the periods of reckonable service at the lower accrual rate and reckonable service at the higher accrual rate.
 - (b) an amount equal to the aggregate amount which fell to be deducted under article D1.1 from a participating member's ordinary salary; and for each such year there shall be calculated the amount ("the contribution factor") which is equal to the amount calculated under sub-paragraph (a) divided by the amount calculated under sub-paragraph (b).
 3. For each such year, a contribution credit shall be calculated separately for pensions accruing at the lower accrual rate and pensions accruing at the higher accrual rate. The contribution credit applicable to the lower accrual rate shall be determined by multiplying 1/50th of relevant final salary by the amount of the contribution factor for that year, and the contribution credit for the higher accrual rate shall be obtained by multiplying 1/40th of the relevant final salary by the amount of the contribution factor for that year.
 4. The annual amount of the pension shall be an amount equal to the sum of the contribution credits for the lower accrual rate and the higher accrual rate, as calculated under paragraph 3 above.
 5. In paragraph 3 "the relevant final salary" means:
 - (a) in relation to a person whose aggregate period of reckonable service as a participating office holder was 12 months or more, the amount of a member's ordinary salary for the last 12 months (whether continuous or not) comprised in that period of reckonable service; and

- (b) in relation to a person whose aggregate period of reckonable service as a participating office holder was less than 12 months, the amount of a member's ordinary salary for the period (whether continuous or not) which constituted that period of reckonable service multiplied by 365 and divided by the number of days in that period, and in either case excludes any amount in excess of the permitted maximum.

Permitted maximum pensions

F5.

1. The annual amount of the pension payable under article F1 or F2 shall not exceed whichever is the least of:
 - (a) the amount equal to two-thirds of the multiple; or
 - (b) the amount equal to two-thirds of the permitted maximum.
2. In the case of a person who is entitled to a pension under both articles F1 and F2, the amount of the two pensions together shall not exceed two-thirds of the permitted maximum and, if they do, the pension payable under article F2 shall be reduced before the pension payable under article F1.

Duration of pensions

F6.

1. Subject to the following provisions of this article and article J4, a pension under article F1 or F2 (including an early retirement pension or an ill-health pension by virtue of Part H or J) shall continue for the life of the person to whom it is payable.
2. Subject to paragraph 3, no such pension shall be payable to a person in respect of any period during which he is a member of the Assembly or a candidate for election to the Assembly.
3. For the purposes of this article a person who ceases to be a member in consequence of the dissolution of the Assembly shall be treated as a candidate for election unless and until he gives notice in writing to the Trustees that he is not seeking re-election.
4. This article shall not apply for the purposes of calculating the amounts mentioned in article M2.3 or 4(b) or the amounts payable under M3.2, M4.2 or M7 (five year guarantee).

Pension Increases

F7.

1. The Trustees shall increase:
 - (a) any part of a pension in excess of the GMP, by the rate and percentage increase prescribed by the Pension Increase Legislation; and
 - (b) that part of the GMP which is attributable to earnings for the tax years from 1988-89 to 1996-97, in accordance with the requirements of section 109 of the Pension Schemes Act.

A pension which has been in payment for less than 1 year may be increased by less than the full increase, but shall always be increased by at least 1/12th of the full increase for each complete month since the pension commenced.

F8 Deferred Revaluation prior to normal retirement date

1. The pension (in excess of the GMP) for a participating member who leaves reckonable service before normal retirement date shall be increased before payment, by the rate and percentage increase prescribed by the Pension Increase Legislation. Revaluation of the GMP element of the pension shall accord with the requirements of the Pension Schemes Act.

Part G

Commutation

Commutation into lump sum

G1.

1. Any person aged less than 75, who is entitled to receive a pension under Part F (including an ill-health pension payable by virtue of Part J) or who applies to receive a pension under Part H may, before the first installment of the pension is paid, give notice to the Trustees that he desires to commute into a lump sum such part of the pension as is specified in the notice.

2. Where a person has given notice under paragraph 1, the Trustees shall determine:

- (a) what lump sum would be actuarially equivalent to the part of the pension specified in the notice; and
- (b) what reduction of the annual amount of his pension would be appropriate in consideration of the payment of that lump sum, and, subject to the following provisions of this article, a lump sum of the amount so determined shall be paid to that person and the annual amount of his pension shall be reduced accordingly.

3. Any lump sum or reduction to be determined under paragraph 2 shall be a sum or reduction either certified by the Actuary appointed under article S1, or calculated in accordance with tables to be prepared from time to time by that Actuary, as fulfilling the conditions specified in paragraph 2(a) or (b), as the case may be.

4. If, in the case of a person who has given notice under paragraph 1, the amount of the lump sum determined in accordance with paragraphs 2 and 3 would exceed the maximum commutable sum:

- (a) the amount of the lump sum so determined shall be diminished by such proportion as is necessary to make it equal to the maximum commutable sum; and
- (b) the reduction of the annual amount of his pension under this article shall be diminished by the like proportion.

5. For the purpose of paragraph 4, the maximum commutable sum shall be either:-

- (a) for a person whose pension commences before 7 March 2007, an amount calculated in accordance with the relevant provisions as applied under the then Rules of the Scheme, subject to an overall maximum of one and a half times the permitted maximum; or
- (b) for a person whose pension commences on or after 7 March 2007, an amount determined by the Trustees, but not exceeding the maximum allowed as the "pension commencement lump sum" defined in Schedule 29 to the Finance Act 2004 (or amendment thereof).

Trivial commutation

- G2. Where the benefit entitlement under this Scheme for a member (or in respect of any member) falls within the limits permitted by HM Revenue and Customs for commuting pension benefits on the grounds of triviality, in accordance with the Finance Act 2004 (or amendment thereof) or in the case of de minimus benefits in accordance with The Registered Pension Schemes (Authorised Payments) Regulations 2009, the Trustees may, at their discretion, pay the value of the benefit entitlement of the member (or in respect of the member) as a single lump sum payment. The lump sum applicable is to be paid to the member or, in the event of his death, to a beneficiary of the member or to the member's estate or personal representatives. The amount of the lump sum payable shall be determined by the Trustees, having taken actuarial advice on the equivalence of the lump sum benefit to the benefits otherwise payable under the Scheme. The Trustees may deduct income tax from the lump sum payable, if required to do so by HM Revenue and Customs. Payment of the lump sum benefit under this article will extinguish all rights of the member and his or her beneficiaries to any other benefits under this Scheme.

Part H

Early Retirement and Early Abated Pensions

Early retirement for members

H1.

1. (a) Any person who was first appointed to the Assembly prior to 1 April 2009 and has ceased to be a member of the Assembly may apply in writing to the Trustees for an immediate pension to commence under this article prior to the attainment of age 65, provided that the person has attained the age of 50, and has an actual period of reckonable service as a participating member which, excluding service on or after 1 April 2012, amounts to not less than 15 years (here-in-after referred to in respect of a person as his "qualifying period"). Where the individual has less service than the qualifying period as at 1 April 2012, his or her pension benefits if paid early will be dealt with under article H.1.1(b).

For the avoidance of doubt, a person who meets the (15 years plus) qualifying period criteria under article H.1.1(a) in respect of service completed prior to 1 April 2012, shall have that part of his or her pension entitlement attributable to service completed prior to 1 April 2012 calculated in accordance with article H.1.4 and abated under Schedule 2 and any pension that is payable in respect of that individual's post 31 March 2012 service, shall be dealt with under article H.1.1(b) below.
 - (b) Any person who has ceased to be a member of the Assembly and has attained the age of 55, and who is not eligible for early retirement under article H.1.1(a) above or chooses not to apply under that provision, may apply in writing to the Trustees for an immediate pension to commence under this article prior to the attainment of age 65, provided that the person applies on or after 7 March 2007 and has attained the age of 55. Any pension benefits brought into payment prior to age 65 by virtue of this article H.1.1(b) shall be reduced for early payment in accordance with article H.1.5.
2. If the Trustees are satisfied that the person does not intend to stand for re-election to the Assembly at any future date, that person shall be entitled to receive a pension under article F1 as if he had attained the age of 65 on the date of his application or such other date as may be specified. The annual amount of the pension to which he is entitled, both before and after he attains the age of 65, shall be the amount calculated in accordance with article F3, but abated in accordance with the provisions of H1.4 or H1.5 below, as applicable. The person shall be entitled to opt for commutation as part of his pension under Part G.

3. For the purpose of article H1(a), any service of a person as a member of the European Parliament or as a member of the House of Commons may count towards his qualifying period to the extent that it is not concurrent with service as a member of the Assembly.
 4. Where a person applies for an early retirement pension under the provisions of H1.1(a) above, the annual amount of the pension determined under article F3 shall be abated in accordance with the provisions of Schedule 2. For the avoidance of doubt and with effect from 1 April 2012, the abatement provisions set out in Schedule 2 shall apply in calculating the pension entitlement of persons described under article H.1.1(a) who as at 1 April 2012 had met the relevant 'qualifying period' criteria, by reference only to that part of their pension which is attributable to pre 1 April 2012 service.
 5. Where a person applies for an early retirement pension under the provisions of H1.1(b) above, the annual amount of the pension under article F3 shall be reduced by a factor determined by the Trustees, having taken actuarial advice from the Actuary appointed under article S1, to reflect the longer period for which the pension is expected to be paid.

Early retirement for office holders

- H2. A person who is entitled to receive a pension under article H1 who is or has been a participating office holder shall (subject to Part G (commutation)) be entitled also to receive a pension under article F2, payable from the same date as the pension payable under H1. The annual amount of the pension under this article shall be calculated in accordance with article F4 and then abated in accordance with Schedule 2 for persons subject to H1.1(a) above, or reduced in accordance with article H1.5 above for persons applying under article H1.1(b).

Part J

III-Health Pensions

III-health pensions based on service as a participant

- J1.
1. A participant who because of ill-health ceases to be a participating member before attaining the age of 65 may apply to the Trustees for an early pension under article F1 if at the time when he so ceases ("the material time") he would have become entitled to receive a pension under that article but for his not having attained the age of 65.
 2. A participant who because of ill-health ceases to be a participating member before attaining the age of 65 may apply to the Trustees for an early pension under article F2 if at the time when he so ceases ("the material time") he would have become entitled to receive a pension under that article but for his not having attained the age of 65.
 3. If on an application under paragraph 1 or 2 the Trustees are satisfied:
 - (a) that the applicant does not intend to seek re-election to the Assembly;
 - (b) that his ceasing to be a participating member was a direct consequence of his ill-health;
 - (c) that his ill-health is such as would prevent him from performing adequately the duties of a member of the Assembly; andthat he will continue to be incapable of carrying out the occupation, the applicant shall be entitled to receive a pension under article F1 or F2, as the case may be, as from the material time.

4. A person who, if he were to cease to be a participating member at a particular time in the future because of ill-health, would become entitled to make an application under paragraph 1 or 2, may make such an application before that time, specifying in it the time when he proposes so to cease, and where on such an application the Trustees are satisfied that, if the applicant so ceases at the time specified therein, he will be entitled under paragraph 3 to receive a pension under article F1 or F2, as appropriate, as from that time, the Trustees shall give him notice in writing to that effect.
5. The annual amount of a pension payable under article F1 to a person by virtue of this article shall (subject to Part G (commutation)) be calculated in accordance with article F3; but for the purposes of that calculation his actual period of reckonable service as a participating member shall be increased by a period equal to the period between his ceasing to be a participating member and the time when he would attain the age of 65.
6. The annual amount of a pension payable under article F2 to a person by virtue of this article shall (subject to Part G (commutation)) be calculated in accordance with article F4.
7. For the purposes of this article a person who has ceased to be a participating member in consequence of the dissolution of the Assembly shall be treated as having so ceased because of ill-health if, but only if, he satisfies the Trustees that as a direct consequence of his ill-health he did not seek re-election to the Assembly after the dissolution.
8. For the avoidance of doubt, and with effect from 5 July 2010, the annual amount of an ill-health pension payable under article F1 to an individual who is serving as a dual mandate member at the time he retires by virtue of this article J1, shall be calculated in accordance with article F3, and at the time when he so retires it shall be assumed that he had attained age 65, but only for the purposes of enabling him to receive his accrued pension benefits immediately without reduction for early retirement. For the purposes of calculating the member's deferred benefits, the salary linkage and revaluation basis outlined in the definition of "dual mandate member" shall be applied.

Ill-health pensions for former members or office holders

J2.

1. A person who because of ill-health has, while neither a member of the Assembly nor a candidate for election to it, retired from gainful work before attaining the age of 65 may apply to the Trustees for an early pension under article F1 or F2, if at the time when he so retired he would have become entitled to receive a pension under article F1 or F2, as the case may be, but for his not having attained the age of 65.
2. If on an application under this article the Trustees are satisfied:
 - (a) that the applicant does not intend to seek election to the Assembly;
 - (b) that his retirement from gainful work was a direct consequence of his ill-health; and
 - (c) that his ill-health is such as would prevent him from performing adequately the duties of a member of the Assembly, the applicant shall, as from the date on which the Trustees are so satisfied, be entitled to receive a pension under the relevant article.
3. Where an application is made under this article, the Trustees shall by notice in writing inform the applicant whether they are so satisfied as mentioned in paragraph 2 and, if they are so satisfied, shall state the date as from which the pension payable to him by virtue of this article is payable in accordance with that paragraph.
4. In this article "gainful work" means work under a contract of employment, or as the holder of an office, or as a self-employed person engaged in a business or profession, being in any case work from which the person concerned gains the whole or a substantial part of his income.

Medical evidence

J3.

1. Every application under this Part must be accompanied by evidence from a medical practitioner of the applicant's state of health.
2. In the case of any such application the Trustees may require the applicant to undergo a medical examination by a medical practitioner nominated by them for the purpose; and the fees for any such examination shall be borne by the Trustees or the applicant, as the Trustees may determine.
3. When considering an application under this Part as to whether the individual is incapable of carrying on his duties, the Trustees may take account of the views of any registered medical practitioner nominated by them as to the potential impact of any medical treatment that the individual could undergo.

Trustees' power to review ill-health pensions

J4.

1. The Trustees may at any time review the award of an ill-health pension made under this Part if:
 - (a) the recipient of the pension is under the age of 65; and
 - (b) the Trustees have reason to believe that the recipient of the pension has recovered to such an extent that, were a fresh application for an ill-health pension to be made at that time, the ill-health pension would not be granted.
 2. As part of any review under this article the Trustees may require the recipient of a pension to undergo a medical examination by a medical practitioner nominated by them for the purpose; the cost of any such examination shall be borne by the Trustees.
 3. If on a review under this article the Trustees conclude that a person receiving an ill-health pension has recovered to such an extent that, were a fresh application for an ill-health pension to be made at the date of the review, the ill-health pension would not be granted, the pension shall cease to be payable as from such date as the Trustees may by notice in writing to the recipient specify (not being less than one month from the date on which the notice is given).
 4. When conducting a review as to whether the individual remains incapable of carrying on his duties, the Trustees may take account of the views of any registered medical practitioner nominated by them as to the potential impact of any medical treatment that the individual could undergo.
 5. Where the Trustees have terminated an ill-health pension under this article J4, the Trustees shall (subject to compliance with the preservation requirements of the Pension Schemes Act) determine the level of pension that shall be payable to the individual from the date when he or she fulfils the retirement conditions in article F1. The Trustees may reduce the amount of pension payable under article F2, in such manner as the Actuary recommends, to take into account any lump sum received by the individual under Part G at the time he or she originally retired on ill-health under this Part J.
 6. The Trustees may determine that an individual who refuses to be examined in accordance with article J2, or who otherwise unreasonably fails to co-operate with a review, is no longer to be entitled to an ill-health pension from the Scheme under this Part J.

Part K

Surviving Spouses and Children

Pensions for surviving spouses

K1.

1. Subject to the following provisions of this article, the surviving spouse of a person who was at the time of his death a participant, a pensioner or a deferred pensioner shall be entitled to receive a pension under this article.
2. The annual amount of a pension payable under this article shall be five-eighths of the basic or prospective pension or pensions of the deceased.
3. Subject to paragraphs 4 and 5, a pension payable under this article shall continue for the surviving spouse's life or until his or her remarriage; but in the case of remarriage the Trustees may, if they think fit, at any time direct that the pension shall be restored if satisfied that the subsequent marriage has been terminated or that there are exceptional reasons for the payment of the pension notwithstanding the subsistence of that marriage.
4. Subject to paragraph 5, no pension shall be payable under this article to a surviving spouse who, at the deceased's death, was cohabiting with another person and if a surviving spouse entitled to such a pension cohabits with another person, the pension shall cease to be payable; but the Trustees may, if they think fit, direct that the pension shall be paid or restored, as the case may be, if satisfied that the cohabitation has been terminated or that there are exceptional reasons for the payment of the pension notwithstanding that the cohabitation continues.
5. For any period as specified in section 13(5) of the Pension Schemes Act (period for which Category B retirement pension etc is or would be payable) the surviving spouse of a person shall, notwithstanding paragraphs 3 and 4, be entitled to a pension under this article.
6. Where a person dies in circumstances in which, apart from this paragraph, a surviving spouse's pension calculated in accordance with paragraph 2 would be payable to someone married to him within the period of six months ending with his death and it appears to the Trustees that his death within six months was to be foreseen by him at the date of the marriage, then if:
 - (a) there are no children of that marriage; and
 - (b) the couple were married after the termination of the person's service as a member of the Assembly, the Trustees may direct that all or any part of the surviving spouse's pension, as they think fit, shall not be payable.

Pensions for children

K2.

1. Subject to the provisions of this article, if a participant, pensioner or deferred pensioner dies leaving one or more eligible children, a children's pension shall be payable for their benefit.
2. The annual amount of a children's pension shall be:
 - (a) a sum equal to one quarter of the basic or prospective pension or pensions of the deceased if there is one eligible child or, if there is more than one, a sum equal to three-eighths of the basic or prospective pension or pensions of the deceased; or

- (b) where the deceased left no surviving spouse or left a surviving spouse who has since died, a sum equal to five-sixteenths of the basic or prospective pension or pensions of the deceased for each eligible child not exceeding two.
 3. A children's pension shall be paid to or distributed between such person or persons as the Trustees may from time to time direct, and shall be applied by that person or those persons, without distinction, for the benefit of the eligible child or children of the deceased or such of them as the Trustees may from time to time direct.
 4. For the purposes of this article, the eligible child of a deceased person is:
 - (a) a child of the deceased's marriage;
 - (b) his adopted child; or
 - (c) a child who was wholly or mainly dependent on the deceased at the time of his death.
 5. For the purposes of this article, a person counts as a child only if:
 - (a) he is aged under 17;

- 6 Sub-paragraphs 3, 4 and 5 shall not apply where the application to purchase added years before the participating member ceased to be a member of the Assembly or a single mandate member was made under paragraph 2.2.

Purchase of added years by lump sum

6. 1 Subject to sub-paragraph 2, a participating member may apply in writing to the Trustees to purchase added years by a lump sum payment.

- 4 A participating member who has applied to purchase added years under paragraph 2.2 and to whom paragraph 5.2 applies may, in respect of any such application if:
- (a) in consequence of his ceasing to be a member of the Assembly or a single mandate member, there has been a reduction in the number of added years which he is able to purchase in full;
 - (b) the conditions of sub-paragraph 2(c), (d) and (e) are satisfied in respect of the application made under this sub-paragraph; and

Lump sum payments

7. 1 Any participating member who has applied to the Trustees to purchase added years by a lump sum payment shall, within the period of six months commencing on the date when his application is accepted by the Trustees, make the lump sum payment which shall be calculated by reference to a member's ordinary salary at the time when his application was received by the Trustees and in accordance with tables to be prepared from time to time by the Actuary appointed under article S1 and the amount of his reckonable service as a single mandate member shall be increased accordingly with effect from the date on which the lump sum payment is received by the Trustees.
- 2 If, after an application to purchase added years by lump sum payment has been made by a participating member and accepted by the Trustees, the payment is not received by the Trustees within the period of six months mentioned in sub-paragraph 1, the application to purchase shall cease to be valid.

Limits on purchase of added years

8. 1 Subject to sub-paragraph 2, the amount of a participating member's periodical contributions for the purchase of added years, when aggregated with his contributions as a participating member under article D1 and any other additional voluntary contributions, shall not in any tax year exceed 15% of a member's ordinary salary or, if that salary exceeds the permitted maximum, 15% of the permitted maximum, for that period.
- 2 Sub-paragraph 1 shall not apply to the purchase of added years by periodical contributions payable for a period of three years in accordance with paragraph 4(a)(ii), and for the purpose of the calculation referred to in sub-paragraph 1 such periodical contributions shall be disregarded.
- 3 If a participating member applies to the Trustees to purchase added years by periodical contributions, the annual amount of periodical contributions payable by him in accordance with paragraph 4(a)(i), or for a period of four years in accordance with paragraphs 2.2 and 4(a)(ii), shall not be such as to exceed, at any time during the period such periodical contributions would be so payable, the amount (if any) by which for the time being:

(i) the annual amount of his periodical contributions referred to in sub-paragraph 2 (if any), aggregated with the annual amount of his contributions as a participating member under article D1 and any other additional voluntary contributions, is less than:

(ii) the limit under sub-paragraph 1.

4. Subject to sub-paragraph 1, the maximum added years that a participating member may purchase both by lump sum payment and by periodical contributions shall be calculated so that his pension under one or both of articles F1 and F2, when aggregated with the pension equivalent of any lump sum under article G1 and any pension under the AVC Scheme or any additional voluntary contributions scheme, shall not exceed the maximum pension limit imposed under article F5.

Further applications to purchase added years

9. Subject to the provisions of this Schedule, the Trustees may accept more than one application from a participating member to purchase added years by the payment of periodical contributions or lump sum payments.

“service” means service as a member of the Assembly or as an office holder and includes, where appropriate, any increase in reckonable service attributable to sums received by way of transfer value or to the purchase of added years.

2 In this Schedule:

“final remuneration” means the greater of:

- (a) the highest emoluments of a person as a member of the Assembly or as a member of the Assembly and an office holder which are assessable to income tax under Case I or II of Schedule E and upon which tax liability has been determined for any period of 12 months in the 5 years preceding the relevant date, and
- (b) the yearly average of the total emoluments of a person as a member of the Assembly or as member of the Assembly and an office holder which are assessable to income tax under Case I or II of Schedule E and upon which tax liability has been determined for any 3 or more consecutive years ending not earlier than 10 years before the relevant date;

For the purposes of providing immediate benefits at the relevant date it is permitted to calculate final remuneration on the appropriate basis above using remuneration assessable to tax under Case I or II of Schedule E and upon which tax liability has not been determined. Where final remuneration is greater it is possible to augment the benefits in payment. Such augmentation, however, must take the form of an annuity.

Where immediate benefits are not being provided or where a transfer payment is to be made in respect of accrued pension benefits then final remuneration may only be calculated using remuneration assessable to income tax under Case I or II of Schedule E and upon which tax liability has been determined.
