

[REDACTED]

EDUCATION COMMITTEE. ROOM, 428. PARLIAMENT BUILDINGS. STOMONT.
BELFAST. BT43 3XX.

SIR MADAM LADIES.

SCHOOLS UNIFORMS . MAD CRAZY PRICES RIP OF FOR PARENTS.

I went to [REDACTED] then changed to a Secondary school. Then changes again to [REDACTED]. My years was 1968 to 1974. 6 years. 'O' levels and also CSE. We had a black blazer. Badges were sown on by Mum. Across town [REDACTED] or called at the same time. Here is a laugh. Note inverted commas. "[REDACTED]". [REDACTED]

The 2 schools could change the blazers over for another sibling out of the same house. Not embroidered. (Hope I spelt that word correctly.) Today in Newry and Bessbrook [REDACTED] aged 11 to 18 yrs. A reddish Blazer Badge AGAIN. I THINK PRINTED ON. Not sown on. embroidered. Hope spelt again right. Embroidered. [REDACTED] Our Opposite school. Across town from us in [REDACTED]. The [REDACTED] !2 yrs. to 15 yrs., now 16 yrs. The Clergy. Wonderful. They know more than us. [REDACTED] today a reddish Blazer. Embroidered badges. People's committee. Get the badges sown on. The Blazer can go to a child going to the other school. Swap the badges. Save money. Also. All school uniforms sold only in the school. Not down the rip of high street. Special schools were gym teachers gets a special Gym track suit. Tell those Posers to buy their own Gym clothes like the parents of the children have to buy. Get rid of the Gym school colours on gym uniforms. Rip of and you know it. GAA at the moment. Girls' camogie. Skorts or shorts. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

Tell me something. [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] They were doing 2 years of Teacher Training to teach. Here in N Ireland England, it was 3 years or 4 years. Would that mean teachers we had from down south were not trained to teach in the UK. [REDACTED]. Was she qualified to teach?

[REDACTED]