

Citizen Space survey questions

- What has been your experience/understanding to date of Assembly committee scrutiny of cross-cutting Executive strategies? Please cite examples where applicable.
 - What has worked well and what has worked less well?
 - What, if any, specific problems or issues have arisen and what has been the cause?
- What do you see as the potential benefits of effective scrutiny by Assembly committees of cross-cutting Executive strategies?
- What specific reforms would you propose to the existing procedures and practices?
 - How would the proposed reforms lead to improvements, including to the functioning of the Assembly and the Executive? How could these be realised?
 - What do you consider would be the potential drawbacks, challenges and other implications of the proposed reforms? How could these be addressed or managed?
 - What would you consider to be the priority areas for reform?
 - How could the proposed reforms be implemented?
 - What are the timescales you think are achievable for the delivery of the proposed reforms?
- Please provide any views and experience you have in relation to scrutiny of cross-cutting legislation. This would include post-legislative scrutiny, where there are requirements for the Executive/departments to report on the implementation or impact of cross-cutting legislation.
- Please provide any additional information which you consider relevant to the Terms of Reference for the review. (For example, what are your views and experience of scrutiny of cross-cutting legislation. This would include post-legislative scrutiny where there are requirements for the Executive/Departments to report on the implementation or impact of legislation (the Children's Services Co-operation Act (Northern Ireland) 2015 being cited as an example of such legislation).