

I am totally against the implementation of any bill that does not allow peaceful demonstration against the abortion of innocent children. I have not seen any evidence of abuse in Northern Ireland to support this bill.