

I believe every child matters and should have an opportunity. I understand there are cases where mother is in danger or around specific circumstances.

I can't process nor understand how we can say we found evidence of life on various planets and yet we as the human race are allowing unborn children to be killed. Terminated. Whatever language.

Please be human. Please see the potential. All the while looking carefully at each case, loving and serving our communities.