

I am writing to you today to show my disgust at the recent Abortion Bill that has been passed in NI.

The bill is draconian and I do not feel is representative of the population of NI.

I wish for it to be withdrawn and feel that it is my human right to show my opinion and as public representatives you have a responsibility to take account of public opinion.