

I am of the age when I took part in protests for civil rights. Eventually these were granted to all.

One of the parties involved in trying to stop people peacefully protesting outside Abortion clinics was at one time the leading party campaigning for our civil rights.

Now that they have amalgamated with that other staunch party for civil rights Sein Fein to try and block people from peaceful protest is almost laughable.

I am totally against their agendas and very much pro life and wish no one harm.