Exercise of court's discretion when sentencing

Clause 1 outlines the purposes and principles of sentencing. It sets out the factors that the court must have regard to for the purposes of sentencing, which are: the punishment of offenders; for the protection of the public; the reduction of crime by deterrence; the rehabilitation of offenders; and, the making of reparations by offenders to persons affected by their offences. Do you agree with the purposes of sentencing as outlined above?

Yes

Please provide information to support your answer here::

Clause 1 also defines the principles of sentencing as proportionate, fair and transparent. Do you agree with these being set as the principles of sentencing?

Yes

Please provide information to support your answer here::

Do you have anything further to add on Clause 1 of the Bill?

Yes

Please provide any further information relating to Clause 1 here::

Dear Committee Members,

I am writing to ask that Jade's Law be included in the Criminal Justice Sentencing Bill for Northern Ireland.

This law is urgently needed to ensure that when one parent takes the life of the other, they do not continue to hold parental rights and control over the children. Children must be protected from further harm and placed at the centre of safeguarding and justice.

I would respectfully ask that you consider adding this to the Bill to provide the protection children in Northern Ireland need.

Yours sincerely, Michaela Moore

Clause 2 imposes a duty to follow guidance relevant to the case when sentencing an offender, unless it would be contrary to the interests of justice to do so and to give reasons in relation to sentencing. Do you support the objectives of this clause?
