

29 October 2020

Re: Proxy voting

I do not believe proxy voting should exist in normal operating conditions because it affords too much central control to parties and stifles the opportunity for individual expression.

Each MLA is individually elected (subject to the distortion of co-option) and should be unfettered in personally voting on behalf of their constituents.

Jim Allister