I live in a street where the local orange order have imposed flags in recent years against our wishes. An anonymous survey said 85% of residents were against this. We were told by the OO "our culture trumps your survey". They followed a female local resident in a show of intimidation. Gavin Robinson said we should be grateful it wasn't worse ie sectarian flags rather than Union Jack. We are so frustrated. After the first year of this (post COVID) there has been no consultation and we feel helpless
