Clause 1: Removal of flags or emblems in the public interest

Yes

Accessible:

Flying the flag of a country or political body on public property indicates support for its actions and values. These values, for example the state led violence against, and repression of minority groups, can be totally contrary to our shared British values. The flags of such countries have no place on our streets, and serve no purpose other than to sow discord in our communities. It is the Department's duty to remove flags which do not represent our people and our values.
