Sittings of the Northern Ireland Assembly beyond 6pm

1 Introduction

This paper has been prepared in the context of the review by the Assembly and Executive Review Committee into women in politics and the Northern Ireland Assembly<sup>1</sup>.

In consideration of family-friendly policies, Standing Order 10 of the Northern Ireland Assembly limits, where possible, plenary meetings to 6pm on Mondays<sup>2</sup>. During the meeting of 25 November 2014 the Committee asked what causes sittings in the Northern Ireland Assembly to extend beyond 6pm, in particular, whether this is due to the passage of legislation<sup>3</sup>.

2 Sitings Past 6pm

Of the 245 plenary sittings of the Assembly since the beginning of the mandate to the end of November 2014, 105 have continued beyond 6pm, on most occasions (62) going beyond 7pm. On three occasions, sittings continued after midnight.

It is not within the scope of this paper to examine in detail the length of each debate on each of the occasions on which there were late sittings. However, 64 of the 105 late sittings included stages of primary legislation on the Order Paper. Therefore, there were 41 occasions when late sittings could not be explained by the passage of primary legislation and are attributable to other business.

Appendix 1 lists all the late sittings of the current mandate, adjournment times and the main items of business on the Order Paper.
